

15th DEAUVILLE GREEN AWARDS

the 15th edition of Deauville Green Awards, under the patronage of Yann Arthus-Bertrand

Deauville, 30th of January, 2026– The Deauville Green Awards are honored to announce that Yann Arthus-Bertrand, internationally renowned photographer, filmmaker, and environmental activist, will serve as the patron of the 15th edition of the festival, which will take place at the GoodPlanet Foundation on June 10, 2026.

An iconic figure in environmental advocacy, Yann Arthus-Bertrand has for more than thirty years dedicated his vision and voice to the planet through major works such as Earth from Above, Home, and Human. This anniversary edition is held under the patronage of a figure whose longstanding commitment to ecological transition, biodiversity, and public awareness makes him a natural choice.

By accepting this role, Yann Arthus-Bertrand lends his support to an event that has, for the past 15 years, highlighted films, campaigns, and audiovisual initiatives committed to building a more sustainable future. His involvement strengthens the mission of the Deauville Green Awards: to harness the power of images to accelerate awareness and inspire action.

« This 15th edition will focus on engagement, innovation, and dialogue, bringing together audiovisual professionals, companies, institutions, and citizens around today's major environmental and social challenges. »

About Deauville Green Awards Festival

Founded in 2012, the Deauville Green Awards is an international festival of films and communication campaigns dedicated to ecology, social responsibility, and sustainable development. Each year, it honors the best committed productions and fosters exchanges between creators, experts, and changemakers.

👉 Registrations and informations : deauvillegreenawards.com
@deauvillegreenawards

Press contact : Jeanne – jeanne@deauvillegreenawards.com | +33 6 28 71 31 87

@deauvillegreenawards

deauvillegreenawards.com